

Plast 2012

The international exhibition for the plastics and rubber industry, Plast 2012, will take place in Rho, Milan, Italy, from 8 – 12 May 2012. According to the organiser Promaplast srl, the triennial event will be the largest European trade show covering the machinery, equipment, moulds, raw materials, regenerated materials, composites, and semi-finished and finished products for the plastics and rubber industry. Plast 2012 will also see the return, after many years of absence, of the Rubber 2012 satellite event, organised by Promaplast with the cooperation of Edifis and with the patronage of Assogomma, the trade association gathering Italian rubber manufacturers and processors.
