

JEC Composites Show 2011

The JEC Composites Show will be held from 29 – 31 March 2011 in Paris, France. The trade fair for the composites industry will provide a comprehensive overview of the value chain, from raw material producers to processors to end users. During the show, the JEC Innovation Awards programme and the second Innovative International Composites Summit (IICS) will take place. IICS is a three-day programme comprising economic, legal and technical conferences and forums. According to the organiser JEC Group, the 2010 event welcomed 27,500 visitors with a growth in numbers from North America (+33 %), Europe (+35 %), and Japan/ASEAN (+34 %). 2,500 delegates attended the 2010 conferences and forums.
