

Vencorex opens new office in São Paulo, Brazil

In order to strengthen its position worldwide in aliphatic isocyanates, Vencorex is extending its global footprint and has opened a new office in São Paulo, Brazil, on 1 September 2013.

To better serve its Latin America customers, Vencorex has set up Vencorex Brasil Indústria e Comercio de Produtos Químicos Ltda. As supplier to the PU industry, the company says it offers customer proximity combined with the strength of a global organisation in order to meet customers' needs wherever they may be. "We have a new, dedicated team already in place and we are continuing to provide a strong service to the growing Latin-American market", says Danilo Zanin, Director for Latin-America.
