

JPS Industries names new President of Stevens Urethane Division

James (Jim) Coletta has joined JPS Industries, Inc. as President of the Stevens Urethane Division. He takes over this position from Chuck Tutterow, who is serving as both President of Stevens Urethane and Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer of JPS Industries since 2005. Tutterow will continue to work full time as the CFO of the company.

During the past 30 years, Coletta has held positions of responsibility in manufacturing operations, marketing, and sales, which led to senior management leadership of the full gamut of business functions including finance, R&D, customer service, sales, marketing, and operations. His experience is broad based with companies involved in speciality engineered products including plastics, packaging, polymers, and speciality chemicals businesses. Most recently he served as Senior Vice President, Sales and Marketing, for Plastican, Inc., a manufacturer of injection-molded plastic containers for the construction, chemical and petroleum markets. He also has served as the Chief Operating Officer of Interpolymer Corporation in Canton, MA, USA, and Vice President General Manager of the Global Biocides Business Unit of the Lonza Group in Fair Lawn, NJ, USA.
